NO TRADING OF ANIMALS ON FAIRGROUNDS AFTER SALE IS FINAL!

PURPOSE: To allow exhibitors who are not eligible or who do not designate to sell in the Premium Youth Auction Sale, the opportunity to sell their animals at a special sale designated as the Freezer Sale conducted by the Grimes County Fair Association.

Rules:

1. All exhibitors who are not eligible or do not designate to sell in the premium sale on Thursday night will be eligible to sell one sale lot in the freezer sale on Friday. All junior market animals are eligible except for the last placing animal in each class of swine and goats and the bottom 10% of the remaining market divisions.
2. Exhibitors must notify the Sale Committee of which animal he/she wishes to sell by 12:00 noon, Wednesday, June 6th excluding those participates showing a steer who must notify the committee within 10 minutes of the conclusion of the steer show. Exhibitors who fail to notify the committee will have a sale item selected for him/her by the sale committee and fair board of directors.
3. Any exhibitor who fails to notify the freezer sale chairman of their intentions for the freezer sale by noon Wednesday, June 6, 2012 will not be allowed to be added to the sale list at a later time. Any exhibitor that misses their sale lot will forfeit their right to sell. Exhibitors must be dressed in appropriate show attire at the time that they enter the sale arena. If you have any questions as to what this may be please ask any sale committee member or the Fair Board of Directors.
4. Any exhibitor eligible for the freezer sale must be present to sell their entry EXCEPT in case of sickness or death in the family or prior approval of the Fair Board of Directors.
5. Poultry and rabbits: will sell at the auction live. It will then be the responsibility of the exhibitor to check with the buyer to see if he/she wants to take possession alive or dressed, packaged or frozen. Delivery must be made within fourteen (14) days following the sale. Once delivered to the buyer, the buyer must sign a statement form (provided by GCFA) stating that they have received their poultry/rabbits within fourteen (14) days. This statement form must be turned in with your thank you notes (postmarked by July 1st) in order for you to receive your check.

6. Thank You Notes: All 4-H and FFA members MUST WRITE "THANK YOU" NOTES to their buyer, add-on contributors and award donors. Please see the Thank You Notes Section of this fair book for more information, guidelines and required dates.
7. Any item sold in the freezer sale cannot bring more than the lowest selling item in that division on Thursday. The Grimes County Fair Association will deduct a commission of 10% from each sale lot. Promotional fees Applicable.
8. All exhibitors that sell in the freezer sale MUST remain in the hall until the conclusion of the sale at which time you will go as a group to your pen to help load out your animal. You must find your committee chairman to find out what you need to do with your animal.
