NO TRADING OF ANIMALS ON FAIRGROUNDS AFTER SALE IS FINAL!

Rules:

- 1. Thirty- Five percent (35%) of each market species will sell in the premium sale. Percentages will be based on the number of entries of each species weighed/checked in at the official weigh/check in upon arrival at the fair. Number of sale slots will be posted along side of the official class breaks. The following divisions will have the option to sell the following:
  - a. 8 Creative Arts baked items
  - b. the top two placing Ag Mechanics Projects.
- 2. No resale will be permitted during the Premium Sale. If donated to some club or organization, the organization will be responsible for removal or resale.
- 3. Any exhibitor eligible for the Premium Sale must be present to sell their entry, except in case of sickness, death in family or prior approval by the Fair Board of Directors in writing. Any exhibitor that misses their sale lot will forfeit their right to sell at either sale. Exhibitors must be dressed in appropriate show attire at the time that they enter the sale arena. If you have any question as to what this may be please ask any sale committee member or the fair board of directors. Animals must be in show condition at the time of sale. This means that all animals must look like you are taking them into the show ring. NO GLITTER!
- 4. Any exhibitor having two or more market animals eligible for sale can sell only one animal with the exception of multiple Grand or Reserve Champion market animals. See General Rule #5. Alternates for the sale will be selected in each division. If an eligible animal drops out of the sale then the first alternate in its division will become eligible for the sale. Example: If an exhibitor has a steer and a lamb eligible for sale and elects to sell the steer, than the number one (1) alternate in the Lamb Division will be allowed to sale.
- 5. Exhibitors must notify the Sale Committee of which animal he/she wishes to sell by 12:00 noon, Wednesday, June 6th excluding those participates showing a steer who must notify the committee within 10 minutes of the conclusion of the steer show.

Exhibitors who fail to notify the committee will have a sale item selected for him/her by the sale committee and fair board of directors.

6. Exhibitors may sell in only one of the two following sales: Premium or Freezer. The sale order will be determined by the Fair Board prior to the sale.
7. A commission of 8% of the gross sale of all sell lots sold in the Premium Youth Sale will be deducted to help defray the expense of the fair. Promotional Fees Applicable.
8. Poultry and rabbits: will sell at the auction live. It will then be the responsibility of the exhibitor to check with the buyer to see if he/she wants to take possession alive or dressed, packaged or frozen. Delivery must be made within fourteen (14) days following the sale. Once delivered to the buyer, the buyer must sign a statement form (provided by GCFA) stating that they have received their poultry/rabbits within fourteen (14) days. This statement form must be turned in with your thank you notes (postmarked by July 1st) in order for you to receive your check.
9. Thank You Notes: All 4–H and FFA members MUST WRITE “THANK YOU” NOTES to their buyer, add-on contributors and award donors. Please see the Thank You Notes Section of this fair book for more information, guidelines and required dates.
10. Pictures: Exhibitors will also be issued a stamped postcard along with their pictures. One picture is for the exhibitor to keep and the other is to be framed and delivered to one of your buyers. The exhibitor must have the buyer sign the postcard stating that they have received the picture, and the exhibitor is responsible for mailing the postcard back to the fair using the address listed above by July 15th.
11. If all required dates have been met for the return of poultry / rabbit delivery statement, thank you notes and picture cards, sale checks will be available on or before the September 15th. If required dates were not met, your check will not be processed any earlier than October 17th.
12. All exhibitors who sell in the Premium Sale will be required to be at the fairgrounds to load out their animal on Friday, June 8th from 9 – 10 a.m. You must check with the committee chairman to find out what you need to do with your animal.
13. Anyone wishing to submit a bid for the resale animals (steers, lambs, goats, and swine) must submit their bid to Karen Oncken by 3:30 p.m. on Wednesday, June 6, 2012. This bid will be for all resale animals of a particular species.
14. All add-ons must be turned into Sharon Finke or Karen Oncken by 8:00 a.m. on the Wednesday following the conclusion of the fair. Please call or e-mail the information.
